

Learning Grammar Through Writing

Learning Grammar Through Writing - Learning Grammar Through Writing is a terrific resource. It is simply and clearly written for even elementary age students. It not only provides definitions but excellent examples. The book is organized into chapters by speech category and other relevant issues to writing. Each point in each chapter is given a letter. Learning Grammar Through Writing can be used for third through twelfth grades, although I do not think it is detailed enough for most high school students. It covers the basics of grammar and punctuation but skips some of the “fine tuning” details that we find in more extensive grammar handbooks or reference works. Learning Grammar Through Writing book.
